Woody Hayes is apparently right. In football, the run is mightier than the pass.

Friday night at Kingston stadium, Cedar Rapids Jefferson ground out 182 yards on the ground and used a rugged defense to turn back Iowa City West, 23-14 in the Mississippi Valley conference opener for both squads.

"We can pass," explained Jeff coach Jack Fisk, "but it wasn't sharp, so we stuck pretty much with the running game.

"Our defense played well, particularly at key times. But that Terry Allen is quite a passer. We stopped their ground game and our pass defense came around in the fourth quarter.

"They had one pattern that we didn't switch on, and that hurt."

Allen wound up with 11 of 28 completions for 157 yards, and the pattern that hurt the J-Hawks was up the middle against the zone as flanker Lonnie Funk caught four of them for 91 yards.

Jeff's defense did stop West's running game, holding the Iowa City club to five yards, largely by sacking Allen six times for 56 negative yards.

Bruce Feuerhelm was the standout on offense, as he rushed for 101 yards and was particularly effective in the second half as Jeff dominated the game.

He scored all three J-Hawk TDs on runs of eight, one and one yards. Quarterback Fred Stoeker accounted for the rest of the scoring with two extra points and a 20-yard field goal in the third that put Jeff in front to stay, 17-14.

It was all tied up at halftime, 14-14. West shocked the J-Hawks by going 61 yards in eight plays with the opening kickoff, with Allen hitting Dave Osborne on a 32-yard scoring strike.

Jeff's Dave Johnson blocked a punt to set up the first J-Hawk score and Joe Bridges recovered a fumble on the West 12 to set up the second.

But the West club came back to tie it on a 3-yard dive by Rick Smith with 4:04 left in the half and West then blunted a final Jeff drive on the losers' 17.

Except for a couple of errors that got them in trouble, the J-Hawks dominated the second half.

Anamosa: TD — Randy Mattiessen 9 (1, run).

Linn-Mar: TD—Brian Barnes (16, pass from Von Hollingsworth); Hollingsworth (1, run); XP—Brad Reid (pass from Hollingsworth).

By Steve Allspach

Tex McCoy sagged against a locker room wall Friday night and extolled the virtues of a balanced offensive attack.

His Linn-Mar football team had just fended off a rugged challenge by Anamosa, 14-6, so he had reason for both concern and relief.

"In some ways we were fortunate to win," he sighed. "They took the pass away from us so we had to go to our running game and we really were worried because we weren't at full strength back there."

The Lions, now 2-0, were without starting fullback Dennis Tharp and his top replacement, Pat Duss, was ailing.

That left junior Mark Lamb, but the 180-pounder responded with 56 yards in 13 carries. And how about the most pleasant surprise of all for McCoy? Junior tailback Brian Barnes.

Barnes slashed for 181 yards in 20 trips and hauled in a 16-yard touchdown pass from Von Hollingsworth that gave the Lions a 6-0 lead in the first quarter.

"Yes, Brian did a great job out there," admitted McCoy, "But he's capable of that kind of performance and the manner in which Anamosa shut off our passing game, we needed it."

He added, "Our bread and butter last week was the Hollingsworth to Reid combination, but they double-teamed Brad and we couldn't get the ball to him."

Reid wasn't completely stymied, however. He grabbed a two-point conversion pass from Hollingsworth to give his team a 14-0 lead in the third period and intercepted two passes, running his two-game total to five.

He also contributed a fourth-down first-down scamper on a fake punt that put the ball on Anamosa's 27 late in the fourth quarter.

Anamosa, with Randy Mattiessen's running and the passing combination of Jeff Sinkey to Bill Burhans paying dividends, was never out of contention.

The Blue Raiders TD came in the third quarter on Mattiessen's one-yard smash. A 47-yard pass from Sinkey to Burhans set it up.

Mattiessen picked up 86 yards in 20 tries and Burhans nabbed six passes for 81 yards. In the rushing department, Linn-Mar's Steve Van Slyke added 42 to the Lions' 327-yard total.

Concepcion a Key as Reds Top L.A., 6-3

By Jack Stevenson

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sparky Anderson plays it cool when asked about his Cincinnati Reds and their crucial series against the Los Angeles Dodgers, but he hotly maintains his shortstop, Dave Concepcion, is the best in baseball.

"No doubt in my mind that he is the best at his position," Anderson said, after the 6-foot-2 stringbean played the major role in turning back Los Angeles 6-3 in the opener of their all-important three-game series.

In the other National League games, the St. Louis Cardinals beat the Philadelphia Phillies 7-3 in 17 innings; the Montreal Expos nipped the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-2; the Houston Astors edged the San Francisco Giants 5-4; the Atlanta Braves routed the San Diego Padres 9-0 and the New York Mets beat the Chicago Cubs 6-0 in the first game of a doubleheader before losing the second game 4-3 in 11 innings.

Who Else?

"Who can do what he can do? Nobody," said Anderson.

Anderson's soliloquy, with newsmen listening in, came after Concepcion walked, stole two bases and scored in the fourth inning and then belted a three-run homer into the Dodgers' bullpen in the eighth.

Sidelined by a broken ankle in the stretch drive last year, the Venezuelan infielder appears stronger than ever for this wrap-up of the National League race.

"I feel stronger," said Concepcion. "And I like to play before big crowds."

Big Crowd

The Dodgers obliged with 52,337 on hand for the opener. They have sellout crowds coming up today and Sunday.

Concepcion's work, augmenting the pitching of ex-Dodger Jack Billingham, cut the Los Angeles lead in the West to 2½ games.

"I'm not going to talk about this series until the final game is over," Anderson said, and stuck to his word on that score.

Manager Walter Alston of the losing Dodgers had two pluses going into the second game. First, center fielder and star hitter Jimmy Wynn probably will be able to play after sitting out three games because of the flu.

Second, relief pitcher Jim Brewer, out since July 14, returned to action with a perfect ninth inning Friday night.

Tony Perez put the Reds ahead in the second inning with his 26th homer of the year, this time at the expense of starter Doug Rau. In the last half of the inning, Ron Cey evened the score with his 17th season home run with a blast off Billingham.

Dan Driessen's triple in the third set up the Reds' go-ahead run as he scored on an infield out. Then, in the fourth Concepcion walked, stole second and then third before scoring on Cesar Geronimo's single.

Joe Ferguson singled for the Dodgers with one out in the fifth, advanced on an infield out and then scored on newcomer Charlie Manuel's single. The Dodgers scored again in the eighth, but that was after Concepcion had hit his three-run homer.

It came off reliever Charlie Hough's knuckleball, and the Cincinnati shortstop said, "It didn't dance too much before getting to me."

Cancer Claims Leo Thomsen, 46

MT. VERNON—Leo Thomsen, former wrestling star at Cornell college, died of cancer early Friday in Iowa City. He was 46.

The Waterloo native wrestled on Cornell's national championship team in 1947. He was second in the NCAA meet and fourth in the AAU tourney that year.

But in 1948 he took the 136-pound AAU title and made the Olympic squad. Thomsen also coached high school wrestling and his 1951 team at Colby, Kan., won the state championship.

Funeral services are set for the Methodist church here Monday at 2:30 p.m.

IOWA CITY—Jan Johnson's last minute heroics proved to be too much for Cedar Rapids Kennedy as his last minute touchdown let Iowa City's Little Hawks nudge the Cougar's 14-13 in Mississippi Valley Conference play at Iowa City Friday night.

With 2:50 remaining in the contest City High was trailing 13-7 and faced with a crucial fourth and two on the Kennedy 41. Quarterback Dan Cilek handed off to the speedy Johnson who in turn scamperd 16 yards to the 21-yard line and a first down. Then with just 44 seconds left on the clock, Cilek found Johnson all alone in the end zone with a 9-yard scoring strike to cap the 12-play 60-yard drive. Mark Mitchell's second extra point of the evening split the uprights to give Iowa City it's second victory of the young season.

City High scored first in the tight battle with 9:10 left in the first period. Cilek plunged over from the one yard line to complete the 7-play-65-yard drive which featured Johnson's 44 yard ramble on the initial play of the game.

Kennedy quickly countered with a 9-play, 63-yard scoring drive with Dennis Karlan barreling over from the 2-yard line for the touchdown. Chuck Johnson's kick was good with 1:09 left in the first quarter.

The Cougar's took a 13-7 halftime lead on Mick Bertelli's 4-yard touchdown scamper. Kennedy marched 63-yards in 7 plays to paydirt with Rocky Dales 17-yard run highlighting the drive. Johnson's extra point attempt failed when the center snap sailed over the holder's head.

A scoreless third period, and a hard fought fourth quarter set the scene for Johnson's timely heroics. He finished the contest with 88-yards net rushing, while Kennedy's Dave Draxton took game honors with 92-yards. Bertelli, who rambled for 166-yards in the Cougar's season opener last week, was held to a measely 61-yards by the Little Hawk defense.

Ailing Randy Myers Helps Topple Marion

By Al Miller

For a kid who wasn't expected to play, Prairie quarterback Randy Myers left an indelible mark on Marion high's football team Friday night.

Myers didn't practice all week after suffering a bruised knee in last week's opening victory over Decorah.

But the 6-3, 185-pound senior came to play Friday night, tossing a scoring pass and sneaking for a touchdown that put the Hawks in front to stay, en route to a 14-9 win over the Indians at Prairie. Randy also intercepted a pass on the Prairie 21 with 1:33 left to play to end Marion's hopes of picking up its first win.

Prairie Coach Gary Leeper explained the sudden revival of Myers.

"He didn't do much at Thursday's practice, but he was ready to go tonight," said Leeper. "I was telling you the truth when I said I didn't expect him to play.

"I didn't start him tonight and I didn't plan to use him unless he was needed. It was obvious he was. Randy's also an excellent pass defender and you've got to use people like that when they're all right."

No argument there, as sports writers even enjoy watching good athletes perform..

As it was, Myers did all of Prairie's passing, hitting nine of 13 attempts for 102 yards. The scoring pitch was 42-yarder to Terry Feye for a 6-0 lead late in the first quarter.

That was the first play following a fumble recovery by Ty Clark in a punting situation.

Marion stormed back to tie it on John Barkdoll's one-yard run, climaxing a 62-yard drive in 10 plays. The Indians then took a 9-6 lead into intermission when Greg Will booted a 35-yard field goal with only 43 seconds left in the second quarter.

But some of the same mistakes Marion committed in its opening loss to Linn-Mar continued to haunt the Indians this week.

A pass theft by Jim Ross (his first of two) set up the winning TD by Myers in the third quarter. Ross picked off the halfback pass by Mark Morgan at his own 49 and threaded his way down to the Marion 15.

Four plays later Myers was in for the TD. He followed that up with a pass to Rob Sirowy for the two-point conversion.

Marion Coach Bob Thurness bemoaned the costly errors, but allowed "we had a tremendous effort after the way we played last week. We're a good ball club and we'll win some games."

Marion did win a statistical battle, while Prairie was winning the scoring war. The Indians had more first downs (14-7) and more rushing yardage (145-74).

Mark Morgan with 63 yards and Barkdoll with 54 led the losers, while Prairie's top ground-gainer was Sirowy with 37.

Prairie center-defensive end John Terpkosh suffered a broken arm in the early action. Craig Votroubek filled in at defensive end and drew praise from Leeper for his play.
