Major League Roundup

Schmidt powers Phillies to crucial 1st win over Montreal

By United Press International

Philadelphia drew first blood in their crucial three-game set with Montreal. And Mike Schmidt was one who made the incision.

Schmidt, continuing to serve as Philadelphia's major power supply, drove in two runs with his major league-leading 47th homer and a sacrifice fly Friday night to enable the Phillies to score a 2-1 victory over the Expos in the winner-take-all showdown for the National League East title.

The victory means Philadelphia can clinch its fourth division title in five years by winning either of the two remaining games.

Schmidt's homer came on an 0-2 pitch with one out in the sixth. His homer equalled the record for third basemen in a season set by Eddie Matthews with the 1957 Milwaukee Braves.

Pirates 3, Cubs 1

Mike Easler, Dale Berra and Omar Moreno drove in one run apiece to lead the Pirates. Jesse Jefferson, making his first appearance since being acquired from Toronto last month, picked up the victory.

Braves 4, Reds 1

Terry Harper doubled home three runs with two out in the eighth inning to lift the Braves' to only their second triumph in 16 games with the Reds this season. Tommy Boggs, 12-9, went seven innings to get the win.

Cardinals 6, Mets 4

Tom Herr, Leon Durham and Terry Kennedy drove in two runs apiece to help the Cardinals snap a four-game losing streak. Herr's second RBI off the night came on a sixth-inning sacrifice fly that snapped a 4-4 tie.

Twins 5, Royals 3

It looks like George Brett will not hit .400 this season. But he still did something with his bat that hasn't been done in a long while.

Brett virtually lost any hope of hitting .400 by going 1-for-3 to remain at .389 with two games to go but became the first player in 30 years to average one RBI per game.

Kennedy rolls, 15-7

DUBUQUE — Cedar Rapids Kennedy remained undefeated in Mississippi Valley Conference football Friday night with a 15-7 victory over Dubuque Senior here.

Kennedy took advantage of an early Senior error to open the scoring when Dubuque was in a punting situation on their own 13 yard line and the ball was hiked over punter Mike Ryan's head and rolled out of the end zone for a Kennedy safety.

Kennedy then took the Ram kick on the Senior 49 and scored seven plays later on Mark McClintic's one yard run with 5:45 left in the half. The scoring drive included three McClintic passes to Kevin Lukes of 5, 15 and 25 yards, the last one taking Kennedy to the 4 yard line.

Three plays later McClintic plunged over for the score. Craig Krier's kick for the extra point was wide to leave the score at halftime at 8-0.

Kennedy's next touchdown came with 3:10 left in the third quarter when Joel Smith scored from the one yard line. The eight play scoring drive began on the Kennedy 41 yard line. Krier kicked the extra point to put Kennedy in front 15-0.

Senior scored in the fourth quarter when Todd Ryan capped an 11 play, 56 yard scoring drive with a two yard touchdown run with 7:48 left in the game.

The win leaves Kennedy at 4-0 in the Valley and 4-1 overall. Senior dropped to 0-3 in the Valley and 1-4 for the season.

No. 300 for Bear possible

United Press International

Coach Paul Bryant is taking the likelihood of his 300th college football victory the way Alabama is expected to take Kentucky — in stride.

A 21-point favorite, Alabama will be out to extend the nation's longest current major college winning streak to 25 games today, keep itself ranked as the No. 1 team in the country and, incidentally — or so Bryant says — win No. 300 for the coach.

"I'm not going to mumble about any numbers," says Bryant. "The teams win the games. I lose them. I'm not trying to break any record. The players win mostly for themselves, for the institution, for their mamas and papas and their own pride."

In other games involving the top 10 teams Saturday, No. 2 Ohio State plays UCLA, No. 4 Southern California plays host to Arizona State, No. 5 Texas visits Rice, No. 6 Pittsburgh entertains Maryland, No. 7 Notre Dame visits Michigan State, No. 9 Missouri plays host to No. 14 Penn State, No. 18 Florida State visits Nebraska, No. 20 Florida takes on LSU. Eighth-ranked Georgia is idle.

now," he said. "Wait about a month, go back in the gym, see how I feel. Put me through some real tests with those two light heavyweight champions, Mustafa Muhammad (formerly Eddie Gregory) and Matthew Saad Muhammad (formerly Matt Franklin), if I can slug it out with them, then maybe I'd make a comeback for the other half of the title. I didn't lose nothin' here. I didn't lose the title. I just lost my attempt for half of the title."

But he's lost his reflexes, he's 38 years old. He went to the Mayo Clinic for medical clearance three months ago, but he ought to go there again now.

"Hey, a loss don't bother me," he continued. "I talked up this gate. I'm a salesman. Six million dollars, the greatest gate in boxing history. I still got that drawing power."

"Do you think you'll still have it after this?"

"I still have it," he said. "I don't know if I have it in the ring, but I have it there, I know that."

"How was it to be stopped for the first time?"

"Not nice," he replied. "I didn't have to go those five extra rounds, but that's not nice."

"The three judges gave every round to Holmes."

"You know that ain't right," he said. "But if I told you all the problems I had, it would sound phony. This left arm hurts, I couldn't throw no jabs with it even in the gym, I couldn't throw a hook. To talk about it now doesn't sound right, saying I was hurt, but I had a bad knee too."

His arm and his knee hurt because he's 38 years old now, because his body betrays him.
