Hamdorf dissects Linn-Mar in 56-13 wipeout

City High senior QB throws for school-record 5 TDs

By Mike Slagle

Gazette sports correspondent IOWA CITY - Iowa City High quarterback Chris Hamdorf won't soon forget Friday night's football clash with Linn-Mar.

Hamdorf, a 6-foot-3 senior, completed 15 of 21 passes for 315 yards and a school-record five touchdowns to help lead the seventh-rated Little Hawks past Linn-Mar, 56-13, at Frank Bates Field.

The victory helped City High (3-0) gain some measure of revenge for the 47-15 pasting the Lions dealt the Little Hawks last year.

"I have to give a lot of credit to my line," Hamdorf said. "Things fell in place for me tonight and it all begins with my line and my receivers who ran great routes. "Of course, we didn't forget what

Hamdorf started his passing show early in the contest, connecting with Tim Dwight on City High's first play from scrimmage for a 54-yard touchdown screen pass, and an early 7-0 Little Hawk

That lead was increased to 14-0 following a Linn-Mar fumble at the Little Hawk 40. The City High QB found Jason House all alone in the left corner of the end zone for a 33 yard TD pass.

Hamdorf easily exploited the Lions' secondary in the first half, connecting for 267 yards and staking City High to a 35-7 halftime

"Linn-Mar took it to us pretty good last year," Brown said. "Since that time we have been looking forward to this game."

Tim Dwight was in on three of City High's eight touchdowns. Dwight caught one TD pass from Hamdorf and ran for two other

The City High offense rolled up 488 yards of total offense while the Little Hawk defense held the Lions to 40 vards rushing.

The one bright spot for Linn-Mar Friday was junior quarterback Jason Hubler, who completed 11 of 22 passes for 180 yards and 1 TD.

"I can't say enough about how our whole team came through tonight," Brown said. "Linn-Mar has a good football team, but tonight, we were ready.

Kennedy romps West

By Mark Dukes

Gazette sports editor With Eric Martin limited to spot duty because of injury, Cedar Rapids Kennedy Coach Don Knock had a chance to showcase his other running backs.

He did, and Knock liked what he saw.

But he was even more encouraged with the passing game in Kennedy's 41-6 Mississippi Valley Conference football victory over Iowa City West Friday night at Kingston Stadium.

Jarvis Allison completed 8 of 9 passes for 110 yards and a touchdown before going to the sidelines with most of the other starters in the third period. Mike Cole, who caught Allison's 20-yard TD strike, had three catches for 57 yards and Shane Brekke three grabs for 31.

"I'm real pleased with the passing game. That's one thing we've been working a lot on," Knock said. "The line gave Jarvis time to throw and he found his open receivers. Jarvis learned a lot as an understudy to Chad Wiese last year and he has continued to improve."

The victory left Kennedy with a 2-1 record. Iowa City West lost its third game this season and 36th in a row.

Martin, a standout running back and linebacker, played sparingly because of a strained knee muscle he suffered in last week's game against Washington. He carried the ball six times for 45 yards (all in the first half), with a long gainer of 33 yards on which he limped noticably.

Travis Johnson, Curtis Sanders and Jason Humphrey had strong games in Martin's stead, though, as Kennedy rolled up 309 rushing yards. The three backs each carried only five times, but Sanders had 83 yards and two touchdowns, Johnson had 77 yards and two TDs and Humphrey had 42 yards and a score.

"I felt real good about all the running backs," Knock

Iowa City West averted a shutout when Mpeti Lobeye scored on a 2-yard run with 1:34 remaining. Lobeye gained 66 yards on 14 carries to lead the Trojans.

West lost starting quarterback Rob Rogers on the fifth play of the game. He was wheeled from the field in a chair and was taken to a hospital to have his right leg examined.

"The score doesn't indicate how well they've improved," Knock said. "They're fundamentally sound and Reese is a quality coach.

Reese Morgan, West's firstyear coach, didn't accept much consolation.

"We did not play the way we are capable of playing, Morgan said, at the same time crediting Kennedy's play. "We have a lot of work to do and we know it's not going to be easy.'

Kennedy had a 20-0 halftime lead on 2-yard runs by Johnson and Sanders, and the Allison-to-Cole pass. Iowa City West had chances when Tom Cronk and Mariano Senter recovered fumbles near mid-field, but the Trojans managed little progress.

Kennedy got scoring runs by Johnson (50 yards) and Sanders (66 yards) in the third period, and by Humphrey (31 yards) in the fourth. In games next Friday, Kennedy plays at Linn-Mar and West hosts Cedar Rapids

Little Dutch too much for Marion

By Bob Hilton

Gazette sportswriter Their nickname is Little Dutch, but what's in a nickname? Fourth-ranked Pella had too much size up front — and substantial skill behind it — for Marion to handle Friday night in their Class 3A District 5 football matchup at Thomas

The Little Dutch took the long ride home savoring a 32-0 victory and 3-0 record. Its second successive loss to a rated team left Marion 1-2

Indians Coach Dave Messerli began his post-game commentary with the observation that "we did not stop their passing game."

Then he summariezed, "Pella did a nice job. They're big kids. They're a good defensive team. We are not physical enough to stay with them.

'They're a good team, well-coached. We knew we'd have trouble with their size." The Indians also had trouble taking care of the ball. They gave it up three times on interceptions, twice on fumbles.

The first interception, of Tony Ruggerio's first-down pass, ended a game-opening thrust to the Pella 46. Chris Cannon stopped the Dutch at the Marion 22, but two plays after a clipping penalty nullified Ben King's PREP FOOTBALL 18-yard first-down run, King was a hair short on a halfback pass, Brice DeHeer intercepted for the Dutch, and they went 45 yards to score on Marc Poortinga's 12-yard pass to Ethan Huisman.

After a brief post-game address to his squad in which he praised the defensive unit for "a tremendous effort - the defense really came of age tonight," grizzled Pella Coach Norris Hale said "turnovers were the big

"Ben King (Marion halfback) is a good ball player," Hale continued. "We had to play him tough. He cuts against the grain so well.

'We threw well. We had a couple of passes dropped that could have blown the game open. Marion played better defense the second half.'

HUISMAN SCORED with 2:27 left in the first period. Korean-born halfback Sok Sarin's 31-yard run launched a 71-yard Pella scoring drive culminated by Sarin's 1-yard slash 10:38 before intermission. A face-guarding call against Marion launched a 55-yard Pella scoring drive that ended with Jon Lee's 5-yard run through right tackle at 5:32.

Brandon Goodyk scored with 20 seconds left in the third period on an unmolested 46-yard return after intercepting Ruggerio's flat pass.

An illegal block nullifed King's run, however, and six plays later, with Marion at the Pella 15. Ruggerio coughed up the ball at the 26 on a blind-side tackle. Sarin scored on a 12-yard sweep seven plays later, with 3:02

Midway through the drive, Marion junior tackle Brion Fairbanks lay at midfield for nearly 15 minutes before stretchered off with a popped kneecap.

King netted 79 of Marion's 127 yards rushing on 20 carries. Ruggerio was 9-for-11 for 87 yards.

Poortinga, a 6-foot-3, 170-pound junior, completed 7 of 15 passes for 105 yards, 97 of which came in the first half. Huisma caught four for 47. Sarin netted 105 yards on 13 down the right sideline with a pass that netted the J-Hawks 40 yards to the East 20. Two plays later, Henderson carried the ball around right end 17 yards for the touchdown.

Chris Sarchett's PAT made it 7-0. "We decided at halftime we had to re-establish our dominance," Dostal said. "The thing I was impressed with is last week (a 21-8 win over Regis) we made a lot of mistakes, and this week wrong game — we ought to play we didn't. That's a sign we're getting better."

The first half had both Dostal and East Coach Bryan Joens pulling their hair out. Jefferson had the penalties and East did its part to stay out of the end zone by turning the ball over twice inside the J-Hawk 25-yard

East tried to use its outstanding speed to work its option attack, and at times the Trojans appeared to have it going. But in the end, the J-Hawks shut them

Kulwicki takes pole after 2 crashes

Associated Press

DOVER, Del. — Alan Kulwicki shook off another dose of bad Dover luck and won his fourth NASCAR stock car pole of the year, taking the top qualifying spot for the Peak 500 on the last run of Friday's time trials.

Kulwicki, who crashed two cars at Dover Downs International Speedway in practice for the May race, and had to truck in a third car to drive in the race, hit the wall on the one-mile oval again in practice Friday.

. His team then had to scramble to change the engine in the backup, forcing Kulwicki to go to the end of the qualifying line. Then, the backup car stuck in gear while being run through the prequalifying technical inspection.

"The guys just changed the shocks and springs and put the setup from the other car in the backup, but after it hung up in gear I didn't even think at that point we were going to be able to qualify," Kulwicki said.

He did, though, keeping the Ford Thunderbird between the walls and stealing his fourth Dover pole from the T-Bird of Mark Martin with a fast lap of 145.267

"It was a good comeback for us, a great job by the crew," said Kulwicki, who now has 22 career poles. "We wrecked two cars last time and this time the carburetor hung halfway open and I crashed hard between (turns) three and four and I was shook up about that.

"It still bothers me. This blew my confidence and it was hard to come back. But I tried to put that out of my mind and go do the best I could, and we got a good lap in. It's not the way I'd like to get it done."

Asked how he prepared mentally for qualifying after all his problems at Dover, Kulwicki said, "It's hard after something like that. I didn't know if I drove the car hard enough. The way this surface is and on these (racar a certain way.'
