Saying goodbye

Dany Heatley, left, of the Atlanta Thrashers says good-bye to Graham Snyder, father of the late Dan Snyder, after funeral services in Elmira, Ontario, on Friday. Snyder was killed last week when the Ferrari that Heatley was driving crashed into a wall. "We want you to know we do not lay blame on Dany Heatley for the accident that took our son from us," Graham Snyder said in a statement. "Forgiveness is also a part of being human and we are here to support him through this difficult time. There is nothing to be gained from harboring resentment."

Boston businessman to buy Dodgers

LOS ANGELES (AP) -Frank McCourt, a Boston real estate developer, has reached an agreement to purchase the Los Angeles Dodgers from News Corp, both parties said Friday.

McCourt will head an investment group that reportedly has offered as much as $400 million for the team, Dodger Stadium and adjoining real estate, plus training facilities in Vero Beach, Fla., and the Dominican Republic.

Major league owners must approve the sale before it can be finalized.

Kennedy continues to rebound, crushes reeling J-Hawks

> By Jeff Dahn The Gazette

CEDAR RAPIDS —
Things have been looking up for the Cedar Rapids Kennedy football team the last two weeks.

They simply can't get much worse for Cedar Rapids Jefferson.

The Cougars completely dominated the J-Hawks on both sides of the ball while the regulars were on the field for the first three quarters, and Kennedy whacked Jefferson, 41-7, on another postcard October evening Friday night at Kingston Stadium.

Kennedy won its second straight Mississippi Valley Conference game to improve to 2-4. Jefferson lost its ninth straight dating to last season and fell to 0-6.

The Cougars were 0-4 two weeks ago before beating Waterloo West on the road last week. All of a sudden, there's a certain lightness in their steps.

"We're playing pretty good football right now," senior wide receiver Derek Hinke said.

The Cougars were pretty good last night, amassing a season-high 367 yards of total offense. Their regulars limited the J-Hawks to 66 total yards and no points before leaving the game at the start of the fourth peri-

Hawks' defense spoils homecoming for Lions

The Gazette

MARION — They're not used to having this kind of football season at Cedar Rapids Prairie. They're not used to having a losing record and being eliminated already from state playoff contention.

You'd think it would be hard to get these young and beaten-up Hawks ready to play right now. Though that motivation thing didn't appear to be any sort of problem Friday night at Armstrong Field.

It was Prairie that dominated with a strong defense. It was Prairie that moved the football just enough to put some points on the scoreboard.

It was Prairie that spoiled Linn-Mar's homecoming with a 17-0 shutout.

"If they knock you down, it's how fast you get back up," philosophized Prairie back-kicker Adam Reutzel.

"It is really tough to keep playing, seeing as how we have a losing record," said Prairie back T.J. Collins. "We were playing against a team that had (something) to lose, and that was a dangerous combination tonight. We had to play with heart and come out hard."

Come out fast, too.

Collins was responsible for that, fielding the opening kickoff and strolling down the sidelines 75 yards to the Linn-Mar 15. The junior then took a counter handoff on Prairie's first play from scrimmage and swept the right side into the end zone for an immediate touchdown.

Reutzel's extra point made it 7-0 Prairie just 19 seconds in.

"We talked about having to smack them in the face early because they were going to come out all pumped up because of last week," said Prairie Coach Craig Jelinek, whose team has been a Class 4A state participant the past three seasons.

Linn-Mar (2-4) destroyed Cedar Rapids Jefplays seemed to take the air out of the mistake-prone Lions. Prairie (2-4) dominated the opening quarter, eventually getting a 31-yard middle-screen touchdown pass from quarterback Joe Cooper to wide receiver Glen Fox for a 14-0 lead.

A 32-yard Reutzel field goal in the third quarter provided the final margin. Not bad for a junior-laden team that has lost several starters to injury.

"Our biggest problem has also been our biggest plus in that area," Jelinek said. "Having such a young team is also why we've kept focused. If we had been a senior-dominated team, we might not have lost four games, but if we had, it would be a lot tougher.

"We've got 17 starters coming back next year, so that just keeps them motivated."

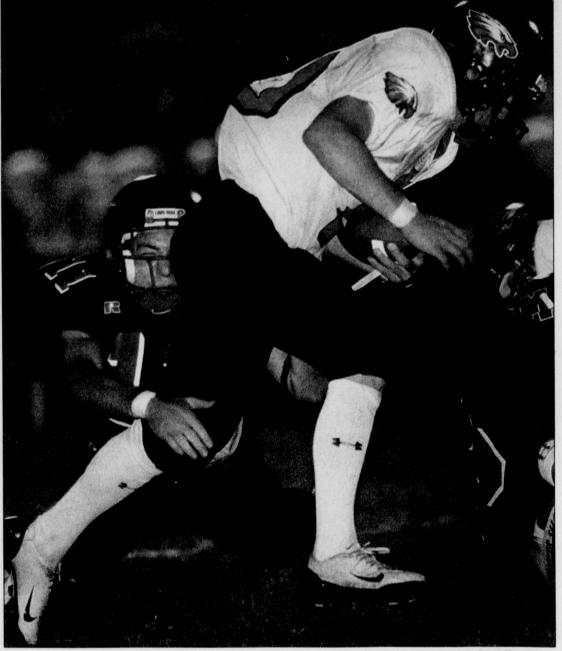

Prairie was ranked 13th out of 14 teams defensively in the Mississippi Valley Conference, but it didn't look like it Friday night. The Hawks held Linn-Mar to 193 total yards, including 56 on the ground.

Talented Linn-Mar back Deric Mickens ran wild against Jefferson a week ago with four touchdowns but was held to 23 yards rushing Friday on just nine attempts. Quarterback Clark Anderson had a rough night passing as well, completing 7 of 24 throws for 123 yards and two interceptions.

In his defense, Linn-Mar receivers dropped several perfect Anderson throws, pretty much summing up this one for the Lions, who are also out of state playoff contention.

"No question our middle linebacker, Drew Blahnik, did an awfully nice job on Mickens,' Jelinek said. "We've given up 1,300 yards rushing this season, and last year we only gave up 700. For us to come in here and hold their rushing game down after what they did last week is outstanding."

Great Wall of City High, Dubuque Senior. Tours start around 8 p.m. every Friday night.

The Ram offense took a hands-on tour of that stout defense in Iowa City High's 48-7 coast at Bates Field.

Senior managed just 151 yards of total offense, and just eight first downs - only two against City High's first string defense.

Class 4A No. 8 City High (5-1) has allowed just 24 points in its last five games, including a pair of big wins over Cedar Falls and Iowa City West the last two weeks. Senior "Tonight we knew if we came out IOWA CITY - Welcome to The and played our game, we'd get the same result as before," City High's Michael Sabers said. "We came out and we did that and we played a great game. I think were riding really high.

> Behind that wall lurks a fast-improving City High offense.

> Running back Phil Kenney ran for three touchdowns and hauled in an 11-yard screen pass to notch his first-ever four-touchdown game. In all, Kenney rushed for 129 yards on 10 carries, scoring on runs of 7, 9, and 28 yards.

Kenney primarily attacked the outside, gaining most of his yards on toss sweeps.

"We just feel if we can get to the outside, our fullback and our linemen can seal and we can get some good gains," Kenney said.

Kenney wasn't alone. The Little Hawks racked up 488 total yards, including 271 through the air. City High quarterback Ryan Kennedy was 14 of 22 passing for 219 yards and a score. At one point, Kennedy completed 10 straight passes.

His backup, Keaton Jones, went 3 of 3 for 52 yards and a touchdown. City High established its passing game first, then gave the ball to
