

Nick LeClere – Assistant Coach, Freshmen

Nick LeClere is entering his first year coaching football at Kennedy. A native of Coggon, IA, LeClere played fullback and linebacker at North Linn High School. He earned All-Conference, and 2nd Team All-State honors as a linebacker. He was also voted Team Captain and broke the school record for most tackles in a season. LeClere was also a three-time state wrestling placewinner, a two-time state finalist, and won one state championship in wrestling.

LeClere continued his wrestling career at the University of Iowa for two years before transferring to Coe College, where he wrestled for three years.

While wrestling at Coe, LeClere finished 4th, 2nd, and 2nd place respectively each year at the Division III NCAA National Championships. He graduated from Coe with a degree in History and Education.

This is LeClere's first season coaching football. He has served as an Assistant Wrestling Coach, Assistant Softball Coach, and Youth Club Wrestling Coach for Kennedy.

LeClere teaches Social Studies at Kennedy. He resides in Cedar Rapids with his wife, Maddison.

LeClere's advice to all is "Work hard! Play hard!"
