

Tyrone Schwieger – Assistant Coach, Varsity

Tyrone Schwieger is serving in his twelfth season coaching at Kennedy. A native of Cedar Rapids, Schwieger is a 1988 graduate of Washington High School, where he played defensive back for legendary Washington Coach Wally Sheets. He was named Team Captain his senior year.

After high school, Schwieger continued his football career at North Iowa Area Community College, playing free safety for the Trojans in the 1988 and 1989 seasons.

Schwieger began his coaching career at Kennedy in 2005, coaching the defensive backs on the Sophomore team from 2005-2006. In 2007, he moved up to the varsity level, where he coaches running backs and hybrid linebackers.

Schwieger works in route sales with Pepsi. He resides in Cedar Rapids with his wife Traci, and sons, Max and Ace.
